Please note the following before selecting Upper Division Criminal Justice electives:

Please pay close attention to prerequisites. Students who are not in the Criminal Justice major cannot take any courses locked by upper division criminal justice standing. Those courses are reserved only for students seeking the Criminal Justice Bachelor’s Degree and who have applied to and been accepted into the program. A list of upper division courses designed for students not in the Criminal Justice major can be found on the Criminal Justice Department webpage.

When reviewing prerequisites please note that Upper Division Standing is a University designation meaning you are a Junior or Senior with 58 or more earned credits. This is not the same as Upper Division Criminal Justice Standing which is specific to Criminal Justice majors.
