Arab Spring
Please join us at the 28th annual Frank Church Conference on Public Affairs on Thursday, October 27th in the Boise State University Student Union Simplot Ballroom.

The day-long conference will feature a number of speakers who will address the current political, economic and cultural challenges in the Arab world. Among the speakers will be former Assistant Secretary of State and Ambassador to Iraq, Christopher R. Hill; Ms. Daisy Khan, Executive Director of the American Society for Muslim Advancement; Dr. Nader Hashemi, professor at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies at the University of Denver; and Dr. George Irani, professor at the American University of Kuwait.

While the conference is open and free to the public, advance registration will be required for the luncheon and reception. Please use the attached form. Note application pending for Continuing Legal Education and Professional Education credits.
