Please join us at the 31st annual Frank Church Conference

Wilderness: AMERICA’S HERITAGE

October 19-20, 2014
in the Boise State University Simplot Ballroom

Historian Douglas Brinkley, author of The Wilderness Warrior: Theodore Roosevelt and the Crusade for America, and the forthcoming Rightful Heritage: Franklin D. Roosevelt and the American Conservation Movement will keynote the conference Sunday evening October 19. A reception will be held prior to the address.

The daytime conference on October 20 will feature a number of speakers including Tom Tidwell, U.S. Chief of the Forest Service, in the Simplot Ballroom. Congressman Mike Simpson will speak at the luncheon on October 20 in the Hatch Ballroom.

A dinner honoring Governor Cecil D. Andrus, former Secretary of the Interior, with the Frank and Bethine Church Award for Public Service, will be held Monday evening, October 20 in the Stueckle Sky Center.

While the conference is open and free to the public, advance registration will be required for the reception, luncheon and dinner. Please use the attached form.
