I appreciated starting out the day with a personality test and getting to know the other students. Overall, on Monday my favorite session was the civil discourse. It was relevant and helpful.
Loved Tuesday! The legislative panel was so eye-opening, I could see how women of differing political views still support each other. Senator Buckner-Webb's diversity and privilege walk was very powerful. The Basque Tour was fun and interesting.
The women on the implicit bias panel were so relatable and hilarious.

I think this day was a lot of fun!
The Policy Experts panel was very informative and gave great insight into the nitty-gritty of policy making.

Dr. Gill's presentation really opened my eyes to the way that our past is shaping our present. And the energy she had when she presented was fantastic!

- Independent Research
...to be introduced to a bill and have only a couple days to understand it and then argue about its contents.

...the public speaking, but I think that challenge needs to be there for people that struggle with it. It’s very helpful to have to get up there and speak in front of the committee.

WHAT WAS THE MOST SIGNIFICANT THING YOU LEARNED AT NEW LEADERSHIP?

The most significant thing I learned was collaboration isn't dead. People, women in particular, can still work together towards a common goal and respect one another.

Confidence.

It gave me a different perspective on how to become involved politically.

As women, we should stop telling ourselves that we are not qualified enough and that we should not wait to be asked to do things. We should go do them ourselves without being asked.
DID NEW LEADERSHIP CHANGE YOUR FUTURE GOALS?

I have always had the desire to work in politics, make change through law. However, I didn't think I would ever be able to due to lack of experience and I didn't know where to go to find experience. NEW Leadership has completely changed my mindset and showed me that I am capable and I will do it.

NEW Leadership changed my interest in lobbying for particular causes. Before this training, I had never considered that option. However, now I understand its importance.

NEW Leadership made me feel like my goals were possible and attainable.
OVERALL COMMENTS

I think NEW Leadership impacts the way that we, as women, see our place in public service. I feel less fearful and much more qualified to go out and make my voice heard and to work on issues in my community.

I’m so glad I came to this program. I had so many doubts coming in, but I left so inspired and ready to keep improving my skills and my view of myself as a leader. I feel more excited about my future and my ability to accomplish great things for the community.
