Campaign Aide Internship Posting

Description:
Democratic Candidate for Governor seeks Campaign Aides for the Spring 2018 campaign season. The ideal candidate will be committed to affecting change in red states, have interest in performing the duties of a field program, is goal orientated and eager to learn, make phone calls, and recruit and assist volunteers.

Responsibilities:
The Campaign Aide Intern will be partially responsible for co-executing the field plan in both the primary election (March 1 through May 15). The Campaign Aide Intern’s primary responsibility will be to assist senior staff with essential duties performed on the campaign. Other responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Co-implement field program
- Manage, recruit and retain volunteers, ensure their environment is welcoming and their expectations are being met
- Place phone calls into targeted voting districts, conducting political surveys
- Learn the voter database known as VAN (Votebuilder)
- Attend and staff events across the region on behalf of the campaign
- Assist in turnout efforts for campaign events
- Build and maintain positive relationships with supportive Democrats, progressive organizations and community leaders
- Other duties as needed

Qualifications:
- Positive attitude and work ethic
- High levels of organization and task management
- Verbal and written communications skills
- Ability to make cold calls

There is no direct compensation for the internships, however some stipends can be made available depending on the candidate and their work schedule.