The Vision of the School of Public Service is to:

• Empower students to become innovative and responsive public service leaders within local, state, national, and global communities.

• Achieve national and international recognition for relevant theoretical and applied research.

• Promote and facilitate informed discourse and civic engagement across diverse groups.

• Serve as a recognized and trusted resource for policymakers searching for effective solutions to pressing public concerns.